```
create database employee;

use employee;

create table departments( department_id int primary key, department_name varchar(100) not null unique
);

create table location(
        location_id int primary key auto_increment, location varchar(30) not null unique
);

create table employees( employee_id int primary key, employee_name varchar(50) Not null,
   gender enum('M','F'),
   age int check(age>=18),
   hire_date date default(current_date()),
   designation varchar(100),
   department_id int,
   location_id int,
   salary decimal(10,2),
   foreign key(department_id) references departments(department_id),
   foreign key(location_id) references location(location_id)
);
```

---#SQL statements to alter the structure of the tables alter table employees add column email varchar(50);

alter table employees modify column designation varchar(250);

alter table employees drop column age;

alter table employees rename column hire_date to date_of_joining;

---#SQL statements to rename tables 'departments' and 'location'.

rename table departments to Departments_Info;

rename table location to Locations;

---#SQL statement to truncate the Employees table.

truncate table employees;

---#SQL statements to drop the Employees table and then the “employee” database.

drop table employees;

drop database employee;